

Easy e-invoicing in Web

Tieto BIX Services provide web-based e-invoicing application to create, send and receive electronic invoices.

Web-based application integrates with Tieto powerful e-invoicing infrastructure. This infrastructure provides industry leading capabilities to reach your customers and suppliers. Needed invoice message format conversions and validations take place in backbone automatically.

E-Invoicing made easy and simple

BIX E-Invoicing Web application have lot of user friendly features that make e-invoicing simple and efficient:

- large number of pre-configured receivers
- receiver service provider/infrastructure selection from dropdown list
- intuitive user interface
- invoice preview before sending
- attachments support
- European Norm invoice contents support
- OpenPEPPOL integration
- Comprehensive User Guide

Right time to make your business E-invoicing enabled

E-invoicing coming mandatory in several EU countries

Tieto E-Invoicing Web application make customer “e-invoicing enabled” without any investments or long and expensive projects. When your backoffice systems are not yet ready for new requirements Tieto E-invoice Web application is perfect solution right now. For small organizations Tieto E-invoice web provide a “turn-key” solution to communicate with your trading partners both customers and suppliers.

Don't lose your business opportunities because lack-off proper e-invoicing capability.

Collect supplier invoices as e-invoices

Tieto E-Invoice Web application has full support to collect your purchase invoices. Same infrastructure that is used to distribute your customer invoices works two-way. Customer will get unique e-invoicing address that can be communicated to suppliers and different public e-invoicing registries.

Supplier invoices are received in web-application where they can be viewed and downloaded for further processing.

Costs in control

Tieto E-invoice Web application costs are easy to predict. One yearly fee covers your usage for full year without any variable or extra costs. detailed information available in registration page.

How to subscribe?

Subscription is as easy as the application usage.

You find registration form in web at at same place as this leaflet.

More information about the application and its' functionality

Tieto E-Invoice Web application user guide is available to download.

Further questions?

Please send an email to Tieto support by email to BIX.Servicedesk@tieto.com.